

Daniel Lüthi

MC, Speech and Camera-Training

„As MC, I not only guide you professionally and skillfully through your event, but also support you during the planning and implementation stages. My goal is to make your event an unforgettable occasion for you as well. I am happy to coordinate with all participants and spin the common thread - even multilingually.“

Short Profile

Host of various events from corporate functions to national trade fair opening ceremonies; talk show host and host of round table discussions; TV journalist and host of daily news with live interviews; production and host of Expo.TV; host of a health program with up to six guests; hotel manager in the USA; school teacher with experience at all school levels

Work Focus

Planning, coordination and execution of small to large client events with emphasis on presentation and rundown. Gladly with live interviews on stage. I give your event a face and a voice - skillfully, professionally and multilingually in German, French and English.

Qualifications and Track Record

since 1999 host of various public, social, economic and political events; certified MSA consultant (motive structure analysis); since 2011 manager and hotelier in the USA (customer contact, staff and company management); 12 years host at TeleBilingue (news, talks and interviews, bilingual special broadcasts); 8 years host of health magazine "Herzschlag (heartbeat)"; live internet host for ARTE.TV during "La Bohème"; host and producer Expo.TV - weekly magazine of the Swiss private TV stations about the national exhibition Expo.02 ; 6 years head and coach of TV hosts team at TeleBilingue; more than three decades of experience as a school teacher at all levels with focus on middle school / review level; 14 years deputy principal

Working Languages

German, French, English

Industry Knowledge

Cross-industry and cross-cultural knowledge and experience in Switzerland and the USA